DEDICATION

For her service, interest, and devotion to the Hanover community, the year-book staff proudly dedicates the 1984 REVONAH to the memory of Mrs. LaVonne Gray.

LaVonne "Bonnie" Anderson began her lifetime of Hanover residency on July 21, 1928, spending her early years of education at the Hanover Schools and graduating as Salutatorian of her 1940 Senior Class. After completing a year at the University of Illinois, she married Frank A. Gray. They have three children and three grandchildren.

Mrs. Gray's involvement in education did not end with her own, as she went on to serve on the Hanover School Board from 1975 until 1983, when ill health forced her to resign.

LaVonne Gray was not only active in the Hanover Schools, but she was also a member of the Hanover United Methodist Church, the Hanover Woman's Club, the Order of the Eastern Star, and the Jo Daviess Republican Women.

In 1983 LaVonne Gray received the Friend of Education Award from the Illinois Education Association. The award is a fitting one, as Bonnie Gray was indeed a friend . . . a friend to education, to the community, and to the people of Hanover. She will always be fondly remembered for her achievements, service, and her love for her Hanover community.

Assembling the 1984 REVONAH proved to be quite a challenge — meeting deadlines, financial requirements, selling books, etc.

I would like to take this time to especially thank the REVONAH staff for their time and effort with the ad drive and layouts. Without their help, Shelley, Ms. Farral, and I would have been carrying an extra-heavy load.

Outside the REVONAH staff, we received an outstanding amount of contributions. I would like to thank Mr. Chandler and Mr. Stone for their photography; Kevin Patterson and Mary Baker for modeling the cover photo; Mr. Dusek for his ideas and advice; and especially the Hanover State Bank, Eaton Corporation, and Whistling Wings for providing financial assistance.

To Ms. Farral, I extend my unmeasurable thanks for her photography, help and advice. To Shelley, a big thank you for her assistance and for giving up her time. Shelley was Managing Editor of the REVONAH. She is to be commended for her fine work on ad drives, managing the finances, and photography arrangements. Also, a thank you to Stephanie O'Donnell for her help on numerous layouts and type sheets. It's people like you that make this job much easier.

Congratulations to you all. I hope you will see a fantastic accomplishment throughout the 1984 REVONAH. Thanks again!

Board Of Education

Board's Message

"There is nothing new under the sun." These words apply to remarks made to graduating classes everywhere. We suspect that the responses of graduates, almost with exception, are, "Ho, hum! So what's new?" Even so, we want to say to you, the Hanover High School Class of 1984, congratulations and best wishes!

Congratulations on completing a course of education which, we hope, has given you the basic tools of intelligent citizenship; the ability to reason and to think critically, independent of pressure and propaganda; and, the ability to face change, as surely you will.

Now is the time for choices. Do not hesitate to make them even though the direction you choose now may not be the one you will ultimately follow. For some of you there may be many beginnings. However, each beginning may very well help direct you toward a future that is the right one, the best one for you.

And so, dear graduates, we wish you wisdom. We wish you courage. We wish you purpose. On to your new beginning.

Superintendent's Message

My congratulations to the class of 1984. You have completed a very important facet of your life. If you have learned from your high school experience that there is no short cut to excellence, you have profited from being here. Excellence and the pursuit of excellence are achieved by determination and hard work. As you look back on your high school days and as you underclassmen look ahead, you'll find that the times you achieved excellence, through hard work, are your proudest moments.

As our graduates venture out into the world and our underclassmen fill the ranks, let's establish one of our goals as the pursuit of excellence in whatever we do.

This pursuit will not be easy or quick. It never was nor will it be. The pursuing of excellence is a life long goal that is attainable by all of us and certainly worth the effort, for it benefits us in untold ways.

-Kent Hammer
Supertendent

Principal's Message

The school year is over. The Seniors will march down the aisle. The underclassmen have their cards and credits. What kind of a year was it? Did you earn all your credits? Did you participate in your school activities?

You still have a chance next year to be a contributing and participating member of your school. I'll wager that you did not notice how fast the year flew by.

The Seniors' long awaited graduation day has come and gone. I hope they all left with some sense of satisfaction with themselves. Socrates stated, "Know thyself." How do we consider in our minds that quotation? We hope the Seniors "Know thyself" and will be loyal to a moral standard and be proud of themselves, their family, their church, community and school. Best Wishes to the Seniors!

MUSIC

Mrs. D.'s Comments

"Notes" from the Music Department:

Another eventful year has passed. All band members have been involved with parades, Organizations Contest, and Spring Concert. A few were also in Solo and Ensemble Contest, Country Music Festival, Pep Band, and the Christmas Program.

Chorus members were active, too. All were involved in Organizations Contest and the Christmas Program. Many were participants in Solo and Ensemble Contest, Country Festival, and Swing Choir.

Our Senior music people will be missed! They have contributed much to the entire music program over the years, and we appreciate their hard work. Good Luck and Best Wishes to ALL the Class of 1984!

Honor servers (bottom pict.) were (seated) Todd Holmbo, Steve Wilbricht, Moni Murphy, Suzi Geiger, Tim Irwin; (standing) Joanie Schaible, Nisey Griffin, Ted Teberg, Diana Carson, Mary Gable, Amy Callahan, Denise Kistler. These students have also maintained a cumulative above "B" average.

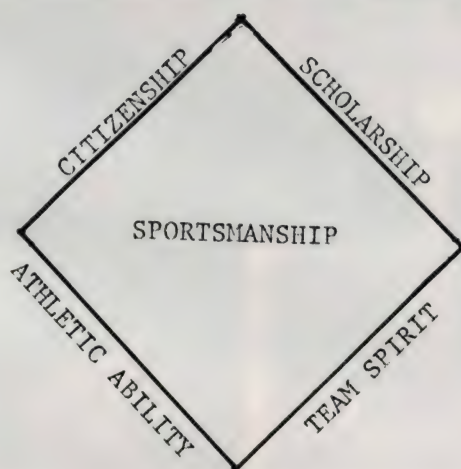

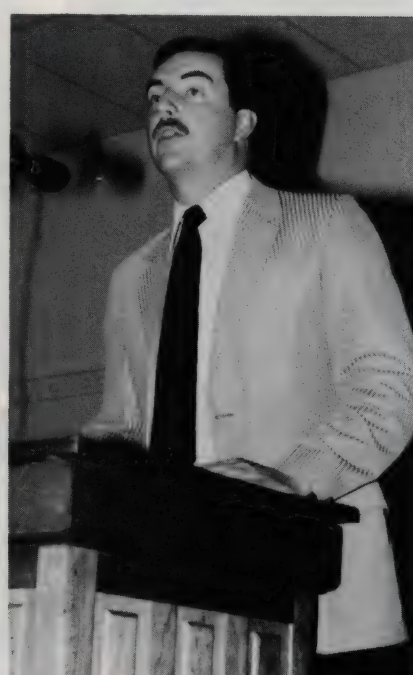

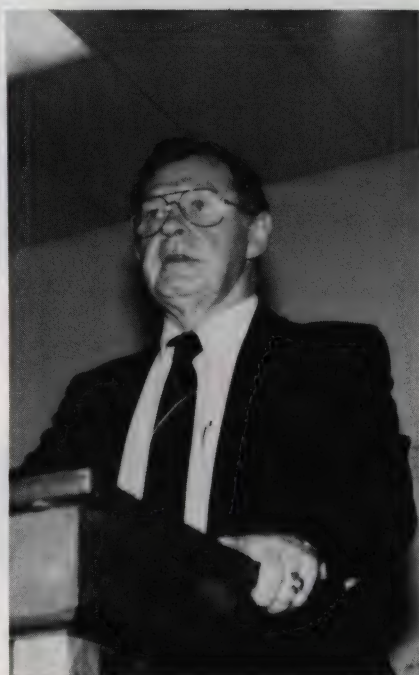

"A child is a person who is going to carry on what you have started. He is going to sit where you are sitting, and when you are gone, attend to those things which you think are important. You may adopt all the policies you please, but how they are carried out depends on him. He will assume control of your cities, states and nation. He is going to move in and take over your churches, schools, universities and corporations . . . the fate of humanity is in his hands."

Athletic Banquet

The 19th Hanover Lions Club Athletic Banquet was held May 7, 1984. The guest speaker (upper left) was Rev. Robert Holtzhammer, Public Address Announcer, Univ. of Iowa. He spoke of his job as an announcer. Mr. Murphy (far left) thanked the Lions Club for their involvement and support of athletics, Mr. Hammer (far right) introduced the coaches. Ed Kraft, president of the Lions Club, presented Dawn Kistler and Kevin Orth with the Sportsmanship Awards (center).

Elementary Life

~ Styles and Fads ~

The 1983-84 year was filled with a variety of styles and fads. Kevin Patterson shows off his camouflage pants (1). Connie, Dina and Cathy show off the handkerchief bandanas, blue jean jackets, sunglasses, and punk hair cuts (2). Also, another popularity was break dancing and the moon walk. Wendy's hamburger launched an advertisement campaign that soon became a popular phrase - "Where's the Beef?" (3). Dina shows off her "Wild" hightops (4). Pierced ears were the rage; sometimes three or four an ear! (5) It didn't take long for Jesús to catch on to the Michael Jackson beat (6). Ben Otis poses for the van off-the-wall shoes (7). Care Bears were a big seller this year. As you can see, Nicole Schleuning is quite proud of her furry friends as she shows them to Kris (8). Tammy, Denise and Penny are enjoying a game while Garfield and Dennis the Cabbage Patch Kid overlook (9). Another wacky wonder was fingernail polish of all shades of colors (10). Trevor and Ed demonstrate the popular video machine (11).

De Lorean's Day in Court
 John Z. De Lorean's dream of a new auto empire built on a $24,000 stainless-steel sports car was collapsing—prayed by the 1980-1982 recession, damaged by his own extravagance and malice. A worried Brown warned his boss, a man helmed by many as one of Detroit's great automotive geniuses, that his increasing reliance on shady associates was earning him a reputation as a corporate flake. In the final analysis, Brown said, De Lorean's lieutenant could be his undoing. De Lorean responded, "There isn't going to be a final analysis."

Apple's Holy War Against IBM
 Apple Computer was once No. 1 in personal computers, only to lose its lead in a head-on collision with giant IBM. Now, company chairman Steve Jobs and a group of young "A-Team players" are trying to hit back. He is gambling that a return to the garage-shop spirit of Apple's earlier days and an exciting new computer—the Macintosh—can combine to take a big bite out of IBM's dominant share of the PC market.

Gang Rape: The Legal Attack
 I could hear laughing, cheering and yelling," the 22-year-old mother of two young children testified. "I was screaming, begging for help." With that depiction of a brutal gang rape on a barroom pool table in New Bedford, Mass., last March, the prosecution opened its case against six men in one of the most closely watched trials in Massachusetts history.
